For Immediate Release

BCCK Appoints Executive Director

The Borneo Convention Centre Kuching (BCCK) announced the appointment of Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson Baya Dandot as its Executive Director.

BCCK Chairman, Datuk Hajjah Raziah binti Mahmud-Geneid, said “We are delighted to welcome Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson as our Executive Director, and we look forward to the ideas and innovations he will bring to the table, with his knowledge and experiences in the business industry.”

As Executive Director, Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson will have a leading role in overseeing strategic planning for the organisation and contributing to administration and programme decisions, in line with achieving BCCK’s goals and missions.

Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson has been a director on the Board of Directors for 11 years and is currently Chairman of the Sarawak Biodiversity Council, while also holding positions in multiple boards and organisations.

“I strongly believe that BCCK has the potential to position itself as a leading second-tiered city conference and event venue not just in Malaysia, but in Asia. I look forward to working closely with the Board of Directors, CEO and staff of BCCK in strategizing and executing our plans towards achieving that potential and making it a reality in the near future”, said Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson.

Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson brings with him an extensive background of experience in economics and business affairs, strategic development as well as project planning, implementation and monitoring.

Among Tan Sri Datuk Amar Wilson's achievements were his position as the State Secretary of Sarawak, Deputy State Secretary of Sarawak in the Planning and Development, Human Resource and later in Administration, Security & Protocol.

Currently a member of the Sarawak Research and Development Council, he was also the Chief Executive Officer of the Regional Corridor Development Authority tasked with overseeing Sarawak's Corridor of Renewable Energy (RECODA/SCORE).

Note to Editors

ABOUT BORNEO CONVENTION CENTRE KUCHING

The Borneo Convention Centre Kuching (BCKK) is the first international purpose-built convention centre in Sarawak, Malaysia. The BCKK debuted in 2009, as a state initiative of the Sarawak Government to grow business tourism through the hosting of business events. To date, the BCKK has hosted close to 1,665 events and welcomed 2.048 million clients, delegates and visitors from various regions of the world. From its humble beginning, the BCKK is an exemplar in Malaysia of how a convention venue can rise to become an ambassador to promote its second-tier city. The Centre has received local, national and regional accolades for professional standards, innovation and best practices achieved within Malaysia's business events industry, and for having the size and capabilities to handle the requirements of different conferences in a bespoke manner.
